ALPINA

FOR MOUNTAIN CREATURES AND

THEIR FRIENDS.

SET AMONGST THE CLOUDS

At 7,900 feet, Aspen, Colorado, is one of the world's most remarkable dreamscapes.

Where mountains are blanketed in the poetic wildflowers of summer or the powdered snow of winter, and locals and visitors feed their spirit with outdoor symphonies, both natural and harmonic.

Set alongside its rich history, a new chapter emerges at the original base of Aspen Mountain—a place of enchanting fables, layered stories, and unlimited possibilities that beckon those with a discerning eye and an appetite for the unconventional.

Here, we bring Aspen's sporting heritage, alpine landscape, and playful roots into every moment we create. To reimagine the Aspen of your dreams, whether you're in search of a skier's paradise, a family base camp, or a seemingly never-ending night in the clouds.

For an unrivaled sense of home and an otherworldly spirit of belonging. From conquering the slopes to exploring the ever-evolving legend of this town. With the mountain as our guide, we always honor our kin and find our pack.

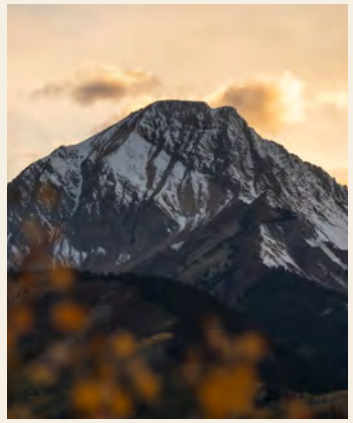
AN ODE TO ASPEN.

A HOME GROWN OUT OF FABLES.

YOUR OWN PERSONAL DREAMSCAPE.

A resort, residences and a members' club to call home.



It's a crisp morning in town, with the scent of pine piercing through the air and the promise of adventure looming near. And at the center of it all lies Chalet Alpina—a sanctuary steeped in the timeless spirit of this mountain's lore, where residents, members, and visitors can't help but be drawn in to its fables.

As the sun crests the jagged peaks, casting a golden hue over the snow-dusted landscape, families gather around the warmth of crackling fires, their laughter mingling with the notes of a nearby soundtrack. Here, every corner tells a story, from the velveted curtains to the artful displays of mountain creatures living within wallpapers.

As the day unfolds, members and visitors venture out to explore the myriad of possibilities—snowshoeing through quiet glades, fly-fishing in glimmering streams, or simply savoring a moment of stillness atop a snow-covered hill. Inside, members and their guests gather for meals that showcase the highest degree of culinary quality, the aromas wafting through the air as children unwind in the Den, their joy a reminder of carefree days spent in nature's embrace. The atmosphere hums with a sense of kinship, where newcomers are welcomed like old friends and every encounter feels like a reunion.

As twilight descends, Chalet Alpina transforms. Gold sconces flicker to life, casting a warm glow over the terrace where stories flow as freely as the wine. Members make their way downstairs into the nightclub to sip expertly crafted cocktails and enjoy dinner.

Chalet Alpina is a tapestry woven from shared experiences, a landscape alive with laughter and possibility, and a place where the mountain becomes a second home.
